

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., September 18, 1885.

Sir:

Mr. Leavitt, of C. M. Bliss, Brooklyn, will be at the Philadelphia Mint Monday. Please give him every facility for examining the coining presses or other machinery in the Mint, and for making whatever drawings he may require.

If other official business does not prevent, I will visit the Mint on Tuesday morning.

Daniel M. Fox, Esq.,
Superintendent Mint,
Philadelphia.

Very respectfully,
Just M. Ball
